DECISION

We find cause exists to deny Keith Willis entrance into a basic training course because he committed criminal offenses.

Procedure

On February 11, 2013, Petitioner Keith Willis filed a complaint appealing the decision of the respondent, the Director of the Department of Public Safety, to deny him entry into a basic training course. On February 15, 2013 we sent the Director a copy of the complaint, and our notice of complaint and notice of hearing. The Director filed an answer on March 15, 2013. Mr. Willis submitted additional information (a letter of recommendation written by a third party on his behalf) on May 9, 2013.

On June 7, 2013, the parties filed a joint "Stipulation," signed by the parties and the Director's attorney, and waiving hearing.

By regulation, we may issue a decision without a hearing when the parties file stipulated facts, signed by the parties and their attorneys, and waive hearing before this Commission.

1 CSR 15-3.446(3). Accordingly, we base our findings of fact on the parties' stipulation.

Conclusions of Law

We have jurisdiction under § 590.080.2, RSMo (Supp. 2012).

The Director is responsible for granting and denying applications for a peace officer license or entrance into a basic training course. § 590.100, RSMo (Supp. 2012). Section 590.100.1 provides that the Director "shall have cause to deny any application for a peace officer license or entrance into a basic training course when the director has knowledge that would constitute cause to discipline the applicant if the applicant were licensed." Section 590.080.1(2) provides that the Director has cause to discipline a licensee who "has committed any criminal offense, whether or not a criminal charge has been filed [.]"

Here, the stipulated facts show that Mr. Willis committed criminal offenses: stealing, peace disturbance, assault in the third degree, property damage, taking of wildlife, theft of cable television service, possession of a controlled substance, and unlawful use of drug paraphernalia.

His conduct falls squarely under § 590.080.1(2). Therefore, the Director has cause under § 590.110.1to deny him entrance into a basic training course.

Summary

We find in favor of the Director.

The hearing presently scheduled for June 26, 2013 is canceled.

SO ORDERED on June 14, 2013.
